Welcome to Worship
We welcome Pastor-Evangelist Tim Roosenberg to our church for a most timely series of meetings entitled “Islam and Christianity.” Every night for the past 8 days Tim has been helping us see the prophetic fulfillment of amazing prophecies from the book of Daniel!

Just as importantly, I want to welcome each of you to worship here at Milton Adventist today. You are here because God has drawn you here by His Holy Spirit. May your life be filled full of joy, peace, and purpose as we worship God together as His children

Update on Our Ministry on the Umatilla Reservation

By Pastor Matt Lombard

Less than 40 miles south of the Walla Walla area, lies the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Reservation in Mission, Oregon, just outside Pendleton. Since the late 1970’s the challenging work of sharing the truth of God’s Word has been carried on there.

Several Adventist churches in the valley have recently been working together to support the outreach and bring hope to Native Americans and others who live on the reservation. Each Sabbath at 2:30pm there is a gathering for praise, worship and study. Over the past several weeks, attendance has averaged from 18-20. The children’s program is called “Come Meet Jesus” and consists of a music video, a Bible story, and a craft. The adults are studying the Native Bible study guides entitled “Native New Day.” On January 31 the group went to an adult care facility, The Elizabethan Manor, and ministered to the residents through songs of joy.

Please keep this ministry in your prayers and consider how you might help. For more information call: Pastor Matt Lombard @ 509-540-1188.
