From the Pastor’s Heart

Dear Worshippers of God,

Welcome, we are glad you are here! This past week I have received congratulations from several people about our trip this week to Hawaii. For the record, we are not going to Hawaii. We are watching our grandkids while our three sons and their spouses go to Hawaii. In any event, our plans take us away from you this weekend.

I am so glad Eddy Darisme, our WWU theology student “intern” this year, is speaking. This is his graduation weekend at WWU. Instead of being at WWU he has consented to speak here. We welcome his mother and sister to this service too. We have been so blessed to have Eddy here this year and wish him God’s blessings as he prepares to serve God.

Pastor Lloyd

WALLA WALLA UNIVERSITY STUDENT

The Center for Media Ministry at WWU is looking for a sponsor(s) to help support a well-qualified student from Botswana who would like to take the MA in Media Ministry degree beginning at the end of August. Kagiso comes highly recommended by the the General Conference and she and her 11-year-old son will be moving to College Place for the two years of her education. She has saved the funds for the airfare over, but needs sponsorship for the education itself. The Center for Media Ministry has some scholarship money available that will need to be matched in order to make this educational dream a reality for Kagiso. Please contact Lynelle Ellis at 509-527-2843 or lynelle.ellis@wallawalla.edu.
