From the Pastor’s Heart

What a wonderful and blessed day of worship we are sharing today. As a little boy I learned from my parent’s example just how precious the sacrificial death of Jesus was. They looked forward to the quarterly Sabbath when we as a church held the communion service. Starting with the Ordinance of Foot Washing (which my little 7 year old mind found really different) to the sacred elements of the Lord’s Supper—the unleavened bread and the unfermented grape juice, both symbols of Jesus’ pure sinless life—I was taught by their example to value deeply Jesus’ life of service and His death for our deliverance. Today I invite you to enter into this amazing service that Jesus gave His church.

Pastor Lloyd

WALLA WALLA UNIVERSITY STUDENT

The Center for Media Ministry at WWU is looking for a sponsor(s) to help support a well-qualified student from Botswana who would like to take the MA in Media Ministry degree beginning at the end of August. Kagiso comes highly recommended by the the General Conference and she and her 11-year-old son will be moving to College Place for the two years of her education. She has saved the funds for the airfare over, but needs sponsorship for the education itself. The Center for Media Ministry has some scholarship money available that will need to be matched in order to make this educational dream a reality for Kagiso.
