From the Pastor’s Heart

GOD IS SO GOOD! He loves us! He really does love us. He totally invested His love in us BEFORE we ever loved Him. Not only did He, through Christ, create us, He did, through Christ, rescue us from sin. Read Romans 5:8 to see how the Apostle Paul words this amazing love.

So welcome to the worship of God. May you relax in His presence... today. May you know that all your sins are forgiven and that you are accounted in heaven as righteous... today. May you realize that within reach of your arms are people who are receiving the same gift of grace from God too... today.

Pastor Lloyd

A Note from Pastor Lloyd

I always feel just a little guilty saying, “I’m off on vacation.” Shortly after I married I told my father-in-law that Jana and I were going on a vacation. I’ll never forget his response. “Vacation!?! I’ve worked hard for 30 years and I’ve never gone on a v-a-c-a-t-i-o-n. I have to work for my living.” I loved that hard-working ‘cowboy’... but his words stuck and made me feel guilty—like somehow I was a wimp and more. But then I read my Bible! Jesus needed a break too. He even told His disciples that they needed to get away from the press of ministry to relax, refreshed, and renew. So, taking my cue from Jesus, not my beloved father-in-law, Jana and I are heading to the Oregon Coast this week. We will spend 9 days following Jesus’ counsel when He said, “Get away by yourselves for a while and rest.” If there are any pastoral needs during our absence please call one of our pastoral staff members. Our head elder, Gary Vietz, will be available, as will Marja McChesney, our office manager.
