From the Pastor’s Heart

What a wonderful day God has given us to stop in our rush to do and work and achieve... to stop and reflect on His doing and working and achieving. “Sabbath” means rest! Not rest in the “I’m tired” sense, but rest in the “My soul needs to be renewed and refreshed.”

Today we will reflect on what the measure of a man through the life of an unassuming hero named Desmond Doss. This weekend Hollywood will introduce the world to this godly Seventh-day Adventist Man. This morning, however, I want to go deeper and examine the faith the motivated him to become a Presidential Medal of Honor recipient.

We welcome the String Quartet from Walla Walla University with the beautiful string music presented to us. I wonder what heavenly music will sound like. One day soon we will know!

Pastor Lloyd
