From the Pastor’s Heart

Most of us use one word for praise, but recently Judy and I learned something new from a book called Holy Roar. For the ancient Hebrews, there were actually seven different words that were used to express praise, each one emphasizing a unique aspect of how we worship our Creator. Each of those different Hebrew words are translated “praise” in English. Could it be that we have been missing something? Ne Hebrew word for praise, yahada. Means “to extend hands”. Halal has the connotation of laying aside your inhibitions and celebrating with exuberance. Zamar, is yet another Hebrew word meaning “to make music”. I trust that today, and every day of your life, you will find new ways to express praise to our wonderful God.

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow!

Blessings, Pastor Matt
