From the Pastor’s Heart

Dear Worshipers of God,

I have a really interesting question for us: “Who is my neighbor?” My first thought is that my neighbor—or my neighborhood—represents people who live near me; people who share much in common with me; people I am friends with; people I naturally interact with day-to-day. These people are my neighbors. Really? Today we’ll explore this assumption through a story/parable Jesus told and perhaps come to a much different conclusion.

We are so happy the Pathfinders will spotlight their ministry in the neighborhood. And we are honored to have Diane Chamberlain here to share her God-given gift of singing. And of course our own Milton Adventist choir will lift their voices in praise to God. And we are, of course, honored that you are here!

Pastor Lloyd
