From the Pastor’s Heart

Welcome to family worship,

There are several descriptions of the church in the Bible that I especially love. We are called the flock of Christ. We are His sheep and He is our shepherd. We are called the body of Christ. He is the head and we are members of His body. We are called the “fellowship” of believers—the koinonia of God. We gain our closeness and intimacy with each other by gathering around the word of God and letting Him mold our hearts and lives together.

But perhaps I love best the description of the church of God as being a family, the family of God. We are brothers and sisters in Christ, who call Christ our Elder Brother, and at His direction pray, “Our Father which art in heaven.” What a blessed unity as ours because we are united in Christ. So welcome dear brothers and sisters to family worship.

Your brother in Christ,
Pastor Lloyd Perrin
