PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Pastor Lloyd

Nearly 400 years ago, in the early fall of 1621, the first Thanksgiving Day was observed in America. Governor Bradford, the governor of Massachusetts, issued a proclamation setting aside a day “For thanksgiving unto God for the plenteous harvest.” On the appointed day, after attending church and listening to a three-hour sermon, the colonists and friendly Indians came together for the Thanksgiving dinner. What a wonderful time they had, with a banquet of Wild Turkey, Pumpkin Pie, and scores of other tempting foods. But with all their feasting and their merry-makings they did not forget to thank God for His blessings.

While our Thanksgiving Day season this year may be quite different than "normal" it doesn't need to be any less meaningful. Listen, today, as Angelo Simorangkir and Aurora Gault, our WWU theology interns, share heartfelt testimonies from Scripture of what they are thankful for. The question that lingers for your heart is... "What are you thankful for?"

Aurora Gault

“Don’t let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also me. There is more than enough room in my Father’s home...When everything is ready, I will Come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am. And you know the way to where I am going.” John 14:1-4 NLT

Angelo Simorangkir

...”walk humbly with your God.”
Micah 6:8 NLT
