"Fear Not, I am With You..." Isaiah 41:10

Sabbath January 16, 2021

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

It's been a couple of dark weeks for our country and our community. Maybe it's been a couple of dark weeks for you or your family. In spite of what's going on around us, Isaiah 60:1 rings true: "Arise, shine; for your light has come!" Our Light, Jesus has come. He is present. He is in control. He has a future planned for us.

Today, Pastor Lloyd and I will be sharing lessons from Elisha and his servant, and Paul and Silas. Their stories teach us that even when we are surrounded by darkness and can't see, Jesus—the Light—our Light—is with us still. The darkness isn't stronger than His light. He will never forsake us. Jesus said in John 8:12, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." That's a promise! What a gift!

Pastor Nancy
