From the Pastor’s Heart

Dear Devoted Worshippers of Jesus,

“This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.” These words expressed by the psalmist (Psalm 118:24) are meant for us today. Jesus longs to hear us say these words as well. These are words of trust and confidence in Him as we go through this day with His perspective on life, His power to handle anything/everything we encounter, and His joy in our hearts. Praise God, “This is the day”—so let’s embrace it with enthusiasm.

We welcome to our pulpit Joshua Lewis and are eager to hear his challenge for each to be ‘missionaries’ where God has planted us. What stories and encouragements, we will hear as he shares how God has and is using him and Stephanie in Cambodia. We also give a special welcome to Ray & Cintia Sample, Ray’s children and his parents, as they provide our music for today. And we give a heartfelt “This is the day” welcome to each of you. Remember, God loves you and this church family loves you as well.

Pastor Lloyd
